Director's Note

Welcome to the opening of Centerville High School Theatre's 2023-2024 season!

Arsenic and Old Lace is such a beloved classic in American theatre that nearly everyone reacts the same way to the title: "I love that show!" It seems like everyone has either seen or been a part of a production of Arsenic since it debuted on Broadway in 1941. That original Broadway show was such a hit that the release of the film version was delayed for three years while tickets continued to sell. With over 1400 performances, it even out-ranks household names like The Sound of Music, The Music Man, and Newsies.

In schools, Arsenic has also been a mainstay, appearing on the Educational Theatre Association's list of most-produced plays for six decades, which includes C.H.S. Theatre's productions in 1998 and 1963. Is there anyone out there tonight who played Jonathan, Einstein, or Elaine on their own school's stage?

It isn't the elderberry wine that preserves this show, it's the way playwright Joseph Kesselring upends our sense of normalcy through snappy jokes, opposing goals, and unexpected characters. Here, we side with the murderous spinsters, hope the police stay out of the way, and let Teddy be Roosevelt.

No matter how many times you have been to the Brewster house, each visit is like spending time with an old friend. If you're new to Arsenic and Old Lace, make sure Abby and Martha know that you aren't there to stay, because we think you'll enjoy coming back again and again.

Jason Hamen
Director of Theatre Programming

P.s. If you're reading this before the show starts, take a moment to enjoy the incredible scenery on the stage. C.H.S. Theatre is a student-focused program, and that includes developing theatre skills and life skills at set building and costuming sessions, in the classroom, through leadership roles, and on the stage. Thank you for supporting their work by being here!

Biographies

Joseph Otto Kesselring (Playwright) was born in New York City on June 21, 1902. His career was always linked in some way to the theatre. His early years were spent as a singer (boy soprano and adult tenor), and at the age of twenty, he began teaching music and directing amateur theatre productions at Bethel College in Newton, Kansas. At twenty-three, he left academia to pursue acting, writing short stories, and producing vaudeville plays. He acted professionally in Gentlemen Prefer Blondes at the age of twenty-four and, at thirty-one, one year after his marriage to Charlotte Elsheimer, he devoted himself to writing, continuing to pen short stories and initiating his career as a playwright. Between 1933 and his death in 1967, he authored twelve plays—mostly light comedies. His first play to be produced, Aggie Appleby Maker of Men, premiered in 1933, and four later plays were produced on Broadway: There's Wisdom in Women (1935), Arsenic and Old Lace (1941), Four Twelves are 48 (1951), and Mother of That Wisdom (1963). Mr. Kesselring died on November 5, 1967.
